

Information Sheet: Level 2 Certificate in Counselling Skills

Introduction

This course has been developed by a leading sexual violence organisation. New Pathways has over 25 years of experience of counselling adults and children affected by sexual abuse and of delivering training on sexual violence and on working with trauma. This course is suitable for people who have an interest in improving their helping and listening skills, whether in the workplace or in their own lives. It is also the first step towards training as a professional counsellor. This may lead on to additional qualifications, such as a Level 3 Certificate in Counselling. Alternatively, it may be an opportunity for learners to develop their knowledge, skills and experience.

Development

This course was developed in order to provide an introduction to counselling skills in Wales to meet the demand for this training. The content and materials have been developed by experienced, local, practising counsellors who have additional qualifications in training and assessing.

Validation

This Certificate is validated by CPCAB (Counselling & Psychotherapy Central Awarding Body) and has a credit value of 17. CPCAB is a UK awarding body that is managed by professional counsellors, trainers and supervisors. Operating for 25 years, they are the only awarding body in Europe to specialise in the field of counselling.

Teaching

The certificate is taught by tutors with a wealth of experience in counselling and training.

Content

The course will form an introduction to counselling and aims to ensure candidates have a basic theoretical understanding whilst also developing practical counselling skills. The weekly sessions will be varied but generally will include both a theory/ knowledge-based presentation and discussion or a session which focuses on skills and professional considerations. There will also be regular counselling practise with time for feedback and reflection.

Assessment

A variety of assessment methods will be used throughout the course including:

- Assignment.
- Candidate portfolio, referenced against learning outcomes.
- Satisfactory tutor observation / report.
- Final external examination.

Candidates must successfully complete all assessment requirements in order to successfully complete the course.
